- To have discernment one must grow in wisdom.
- A wise person who seeks out God is able to discern the truth from error.
- John says that as we discern that happens in the world, we need to test what is the driving force.
- Scripture tells us that the rest of the angels who rebelled against God were ostracized from heaven too.
- These fallen angels are agents of chaos.
- If that spiritual influence or motivation isn't pointing to or acknowledging Jesus is who He said He is, this isn't of God.
- What matters is living in light of who Jesus is.
- Wisdom leads to discernment. (James 1:5)
- Our enemy is made up of the spiritual forces who oppose God.
- The Spirit of the Living God who rests and abides within you isn't shaken. God is faithful.
- Until culture fully reflects the Kingdom of God, popular opinion won't always equal truth.
- May we learn to discern all things by God-given wisdom and guidance and follow that which we have discerned.
